National Association of the Deaf—Convention, 1920.

News items of interest to the deaf of Michigan may be addressed to Mrs. C. C. Colby, 715 E. Jefferson Avenue, Detroit Subscriptions will be received and forwarded to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL

Come over and see how the city of Detroit looks to you. You will never be sorry after seeing the "City of the Straits." Its memories of the sweet greetings of the dear old friends and handshakings of men and women. And surely you who toil and for weary months should have five days of helpful rest—meeting with the noted men and women from the four winds.

Earnestly the N A. D. Committee are trying to plan out fine Convention schemes. The cost of living is generally so high in the United States, we have to take it out in dreams.

The Local N. A. D. Committee had a business meeting Friday evening, February 26th, with Charles J. Kenney, Chairman

The Committee present were Berry, Jones, Walsh, Kresin, Mrs. Colby, Miss Colby, Waters, Hellers, Wells, Schneider, Mrs. Behrendt, Heymanson and Eickoff, of Flint. It was a lively meeting. P. Hellers was appointed to assist Mrs. Colby, who is chairman of the banquet.

Several communications from Kalamazoo, Lansing, et cetera, were read and appreciated. Among them was a report from Lansing. The Lansing deaf have had three socials since New Year's ushered in. The next party will be at the Noelp's, March 20th, in Lansing. St. Patrick's promises to be a "Hummer."

The Local Branch had a business meeting Saturday evening, February 28th, at the D. A. D. with President Whitehead. It was an unusually interesting meeting.

Mr. Marcus L. Kenner's tentative ticket for the consideration of officers was suggested and was supported, but many have not received the ballots from Secretary Roberts, of Washington, D. C., though they were good standing members.

Loud applause was given the deaf of Lansing for their good effort and the secretary of the branch was requested to write a letter of congratulation to the Lansing deaf, through Mrs. Bertha Hamilton Collette. Refreshments of delicious grape wine and cakes were served by Mrs. Johnson and her assistants.

Of course, the proceedings of the reunion of the Michigan Association of the Deaf, which was held at the Michigan School for the Deaf, in Flint, June 1919, deserved a place in the JOURNAL. The Flint correspondent, E M. B., stated it was lightly touched upon in the JOURNAL by its correspondent from Detroit, and I wish to say that I was in Florida at that time, from February to July, so I was not responsible for it. Thank you.

The Ouija craze is the latest fashion just now. Two deaf, Saturday evening, February 28th, placed each hand lightly upon the little table, touching it merely with the tips of the fingers, and waited for a few minutes.

For the new president of the N. A. D, the planchette began to run to "S." In a little while the planchette whithout any intentional (?) impulse given by two who touched it turned around with speedily to "A" for the first V. President, then it moved an inch and waited—just like a year to the onlookers—then it moved backward slowly to "B" for the second Vice-President.

And for the Secretary it moved backward, then darted to "R." Here it stood for a long time and moved slowly backward to "A," but left it immediately for "M" for treasurer. I do not know if the planchette moved designedly impelled by two operators, but this toy has proved most amusing to the onlookers.

C. C. Codman, who gave a talk at the D. A. D. under the auspices of the local N. A. D. branch February 21st, did not get in Akron, Ohio, till 8:30 on his returned trip from Detroit, and he missed a good part of the entertainment in the gymn. Ten miles near Ceveland, there was a trolley smashup that stalled him in a cornfield for two hours and a half.

He reported that at the gymnasium in Akron, O., Tuesday night, February 24th, the Silent basketball girls played against the Goodyear regulars. It was a hot contest like "women against women." Both had won two games each, and the fifth game was to decide the supremacy, and it was a game gamely fought. The Silent lost 6 to 4. 6 to 4.

With the growth of the membership of both D. A. D. and Ladies' Auxiliary, the movement has started to locate a larger hall before June The D. A. D. will have a series of socials.

Mr John Nash has just gone to Grand Rapids on business, but will return to Detroit in about two weeks. Mrs. Nash is still staying in Detroit.

Frank Friday has just purchased a home out on Seven Mile Road. Congratulations.

Arthur Grunow died of asthma, March 1st, leaving a wife and four boys He was a frat The deaf of Detroit extend their sympathy to the bereaved family

Ralph Beaver has sold his old "Ford," and bought a Touring Ford with a self starter. He will have it in a week or two. Congratulations.

Baby Grace Beaver was taken seriously ill for a few days last week, but is improved now.

Detroit deaf are busy these days, saving enough money to entertain their friends during the Convention in August.

The following is taken from the Battle Creek News:—Ivis Tenney, son of Elder George C. Tenney, died at the Sanitarium February 7th at about 4 o'clock of pneumonia He was 42 years old and leaves a wife and an eight-year-old son, George E, at the home in Detroit, besides his older son, Ivis, who is ticket agent at the Grand Trunk station here.

Mr. Tenney was employed as an artist with the Frederick Sterns company, manufacturing chemist, in Detroit. He had developed a strong talent as an artist, and, aside from his professional work, frequently delighted audiences at the Sanitarium and at Camp Custer during the time of training there.

He had of late been suffering with a stomach trouble, and was at the Grace hospital in Detroit when Elder Tenney returned from his western trip a little more than three weeks ago. At that time Elder Tenney had him removed to the Sanitarium hospital, where he was successfully operated upon for gastro-enterostomy, andwas getting on well until he developed pneumonia.

Ivis Tenny was born in Wisconsin in 1877, and came with the family when they moved to Battle Creek. He lost his hearing while still a child three years old, and later attended schools in Flint and at Faribault, Minn. But in spite of this handicap his talent as an artist opened up a successful career for him, and he has been doing well in his special field for a number of years.

His unexpected death was a great shock to the family, who have the sympathy of a host of friends.

KALAMAZOO NOTES.

Miss Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Taylor, of Kalamazoo, has been engaged by the city of Three Rivers, Mich., for two weeks to nurse the city's sick. She is a graduate nurse.

The news of the death of Ivers Tenney was received in Kalamazoo too late for any one to attend the funeral. His sudden death cast a gloom over the deaf community where he was best known, having lived in Kalamazoo over ten years. He possessed considerable ability as an oil and crayon painter, but never ventured to put his drawings on the market, preferring to give them away as birthday and wedding gifts. Some of the homes of the Kalamazoo deaf are adorned with fine specimens of Mr. Tenney's work.

Martin Taylor has a book "The Proclamation of Liberty and The Unpardonable Sin," published in 1915 at Riverside, California. Through its two hundred sixty-six pages are scattered splendid full-page cuts made from the drawings of Mr. Tenney, with his name in one corner. Had he the means and proper coaching, he would have undoubtedly developed into a great artist. It was not until he removed to Detroit three years ago that his talents were at once seen and seized upon by a business house there. He became an advertising designer, mostly on labels for perfume bottles, and was doing wonderfully well and his success brought much joy to his many admiring friends Then he was taken suddenly ill and within a week he was gone forever He was a true friend; always generous, always cheerful, and at the time of his death, was one of most active boosters for the Detroit Convention. He was a lovable husband and father also. He leaves a wife and two sons to mourn his death. The oldest son is a train dispatcher on the Grand Trunk in Battle Creek. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

John White, who is seventy five years old, but who bears the weight of years lightly, was at the February 21st meeting, after a long confinement to his home with a severe cold. He remembers having seen Laurent Clerc in New York City. He has a most comfortable home with his married daughter, on Hay's Park Court, Kalamazoo.

Four of the Kalamazoo deaf are automobile owners, Ed. Parsons, Merton Francisco, John Voisine and Clarence Snow. Voisine's is the swellest of them all. They will be seen racing to Detroit next August.

A letter of resignation from Mr. J. J. Walsh was read, and good wishes were showered on him at the Local Branch meeting Saturday evening, February 28th Mr. Walsh is soon to be married to Miss Gibson and spend their honeymoon in Illinois.

MRS. C. C. COLBY.
715 JEFFERSON AVENUE, EAST.

Detroit is rapidly assuming a shape, a form, a personality and an individuality in an architectual way. It is emerging, swiftly now, from the period of transaction from the old residential city of quiet homes and spacious, well kept lawns, to a thriving community of the 1,000,000 class.

Detroit is a "Dynamic City." Its house problem has been copied by New York and other cities!

We will, from time to time, give you the facts about Detroit so you can picture them.

If it unexpectedly rains during the week of Convention, the Detroit News surely will cordially invite you to inspect its plant at Second and Lafayette. A guide will gladly escort you at 10 A.M., 1 P.M. and 3 P.M., at which time the various processes of newspaper production may be seen to the best advantage.

Don't worry about the high price of meals. Cheer up! It is plainly, painfully evident, that the price of foods in Detroit are climbing down, following eggs slowly. It is the only way, you know; if the eggs were to drop precipitantly they might break.

There are many pleasant and well ventilated restaurants in town that will suit you, where there are signs "Please do not smoke."

When any of you are broken hearted, come and see Detroit and forget the old attachment. The right one will surely come along and you will be happier.

Florida deaf.—Come over and see our mascot, "Jimmy." He is far from home. He is a beautifully marked six-week-old alligator and is about ten inches long He arrived unexpectedly in Detroit from Florida, February 2d. He is placed at the Belle Isle Zoo.

Under the auspices of the Local Branch, N. A. D., we had a "Friendship" Social Saturday evening, March 6th, at the hall of D. A. D. It was under the direction of A. R. Schneider and several lady assistants. The attendance was somewhat large, ice-cream, cakes, and grape juice were sold.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Detroit Association of the Deaf had a business meeting Wednesday evening, March 10th. Important business was transacted, after which a game of cards was indulged in and D. A. D. boys enjoyed the social with Auxiliary girls. Refreshments were sold, the proceeds going to the Club fund. Mrs. E. M. Jacobs was Chairman and she did her work well.

The Detroit Association of the Deaf has purchased a new Rotespeed Stencil Duplicator, of which the Local Committee, N. A. D., has agreed to pay one fourth. The committee can use it for many things for the Convention. It is a handy Duplicator.

A large reception was held at the Parish House of St. John's Episcopal Church, given by the members of the church and Ladies' Guild, for Rev. C. W. Charles, our new Pastor, Friday evening, March 5th. Mrs. A. R. Schneider, who was chairman, was in charge of the affair. It is with much regret that Rev. Charles was detained at Cleveland, Ohio, on account of confirmation held there. Prof. H. C. Hammond opened the reception with a prayer. Mrs. Nelson rendered "Nearer, My God, to Thee," the audience joined her accordingly.

Mrs. Kenney recited "Abide with Me," beautifully. Messrs. Jones, Nash and others spoke of our duties to God by attending the church services, etc. James Henderson, who has been ill for several weeks, is on the road of recovery. The church people are requested to visit him and pray for him. Ice-cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Dornsby and daughter, Miss Dornsby, of Flint, were at the Social of March 6th. They expect to live in Detroit for good. Mr. and Mrs. Dornsby enjoyed the deaf gathering here.

John Walsh did not go to Grand Rapids for a few days, as he planned, because the atmosphere of this city was too much for him.

The Detroit deaf are rejoicing that Miss Anna Donohue is home in Detroit once again, from Arkansas City, Kansas, where she has been for a month caring for a sick sister, who has fully recovered and has gone to the South for a couple of months.

The father of Mrs. Ralph Beaver and Miss Helen Warsaw died Friday, March 5th, in the country near Bay City. Their friends extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

Albert Maierhoffer and Ralph Adams gave a dance exhibition on the night of March 6th, and a collection of eighty-six pennies gleefully flew into the Convention fund. Thank you.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rollins have their home on Mitchell Avenue decorated, and the Allera family are staying with them temporarily.

Rudolph Stark has proved himself a good Sergeant-at-Arms for the N. F. S. D., D. A. D. and N. A. D.

We are glad to report that baby Grace Beaver is well, and was seen smiling and playful at the last meeting.

William Zeh is still in Detroit and is also still a bachelor. He has an automobile and often entertains his host of friends.

Mrs. McSparin's deaf brother, George Piefer, and his seven years old son Richard, were callers at the D. A. D., and enjoyed the "Friendship" social Saturday evening, March 5th.

Mrs. Frank Allera and daughter are home from Cadillac, Michigan, Monday March 1st. They surprised the folks at the social of March 6th with their presence.

There are about twenty deaf-mutes working at the Wadsworth Manufactory Company, three of whom are deaf girls.

Edward L. Palmateer, of Williamsport, Pa, and Oreon W. Stitt, of Atlanta, Ga., are in town in search of work. They are smitten with Detroit and its surroundings.

The young folks are receiving invitations to attend a Linen Shower given for Frank Holbrook, at her home, 180 Louise Avenue, on Saturday evening, March 13th. The affairs is under the direction of Mrs. E. L. McMullen and Mrs. S. A. Goth.

Charles Drake is employed at the Continential Company, and seems to like it. He had been working for nine years at the Buick Motor Company, in Flint. His deaf brother, who has been working at the Buick Company, in Flint, for some seven years, has taken Charles' place in Flint.

Charles Rosenbaum has just gone to Indiana, March 6th, to be gone for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Frey gladly welcomed a baby boy to their cosy home, March 6th. It is named Charles. Congratulations.

IN MEMORY OF IVERS TENNEY.

WHEREAS, Death, the stern reaper, has seen fit to remove from our midst a valued and highly respected member of the Local Branch, N. A. D., in the person of Ivers Tenney, who died in Battle Creek, Saturday, February 7th; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Tenney has been of great value to the Local Committee in designing its letter heads, and in many ways making his skillful art of value to the local Committee, the Local Branch, N. A. D., the Detroit Division, No. 2, N. F. S. D., and the Detroit Association of the Deaf, we, the members of the Local Committee, feel that we should express our deep sorrow, for the loss of a valued friend and loving comrade, and that our most sincere sympathy be extended to his bereaved wife and children; be it, therefore,

Resolved, That we, the members of the Local Committee, N. A. D., do fully concur in the above, and that we have a copy these resolutions placed before the Local Branch, N. A. D., Detroit Division No. 2, N. F. S. D., and the Detroit Association of the Deaf, all of which he was an honored, and highly respected member; and be it, also,

Resolved, That we send a copy of these resolutions to his beloved wife, children and parents.

We have known him as a soul of democracy, just in his dealings with his fellows. He was a man, who never shirked a duty, or refused to do a favor, and whose cheerfulness was helpful to those around him, and we deeply deplore his loss.

The Detroit deaf are getting anxious as to the non-appearance of of our friend, Mrs. Electa Grout, at the meetings and socials since Christmas.

Max Crittenden, a promising young man, who has a good job at the Hudson Motor Co., has just taken the JOURNAL, saying he could enjoy reading it at home after work time. He has for his partner, Irving Sohnlein, working at the department. Max Crittenden is a young brother of Mrs. John Berry, of Mt. Clemens.

MRS. C. C. COLBY,
715 Jefferson Ave., East.

Waterloo, Iowa.

Mr. Herbert Bryant of Miles, Ia., and Mrs. Maud Locke, of Fort Dodge, were quietly married at the First Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant left for Miles, where they plan to reside on his farm. Wish them a happy married life.

Mrs. Will Clark, of Dinsdale, Ia., was still suffering from the disease caused by the auto collision. She is getting along nicely, and is gaining in health and spirits. She has been having a serious time for the past year, but her friends are glad to learn of her improvement in health and spirits.

Mr. R. Wayne, of Ida Grove, was in Fort Dodge the first of the week, looking after business matters and shaking hands with his old friends

Mr. Irwin Thomas, of Dike, was a welcome visitor in Waterloo for a few hours on Friday last.

Conrad Vick has lately resigned his position as a shoe cobbler in the Fox shoe shop, and has accepted a better one in the Progressive shoe shop.

Announcements were received here last week of the marriage of Mr. Geo. Murphy, of Akron, O., to Miss Pearl Pollock, of Des Moines, Ia. They will live in Akron.

In the Deaf-Mute Hawkeye items last week, the item in thatsaid Franciso Gueffroy would look for a good job in Omaha is a mistake. It was not his intention to do so. He has excellent employment in the Cedar Falls Record office.

Miss Elizabeth Slight underwent a serious operation on Friday, at Sartaror Hospital. Although she has been in a very critical condition, it is now thought that she will recover.

Walter Postuka, of Mason City, made his usual trip to Clear Lake. He has a fine position as a bookeeper in the office of Modern Brotherhood of America. Wish him success and prosperity.

The many Waterloo, Cedar Falls, and Waverly friends of Mrs. Charles Dorn will be sorry to learn that she is in poor health at this time, but all are certainly hoping that they may soon hear that her condition has taken a change for the better. She owns a beautiful farm of 171 acres.

Mrs. Hardcastle, of Chicago, came to Cedar Falls to visit, the remainder of the week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Daniel Slight.

Governor W. L. Harding has appointed Mr. W. W. Haire, of Fort Dodge, a member of the State Pharmacy Commission. He is a brother of a deaf-mute, Ed. Haire.

Mrs. Daniel Slight is certainly enjoying the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL. We had very cold weather last week but this week is great. She was sitting out on the porch, wearing a gingham dress. It is hard to understand why people would live in such cold climates when they could live in California.

Wm. Brochmeyer has been absent from his work at Waterloo Gasoline Company for a week, he being confined to bed with a bad case of grippe.

One of the most pleasant social affairs of the winter, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Crosby, was given by the members of the Ladies' Aid Society, to their husbands and friends. A course supper was served. The rest of the evening was spent in various games and fun producing pastimes.

Last Friday, Miss Myrtle Patterson observed her 26th birthday anniversary, and in the afternoon a number of her girl friends gathered at her home to help her celebrate the event. The time was very pleasantly spent in a social way. Before leaving, the guests presented Miss Patterson with a number of pretty gifts.

Mr. D. A. Slight, of Cedar Falls, was in Waterloo last week to say "Hello" to his friends and attend the auto show. We are sure that he had a rattling good time. Come again.

Word was recently received that Palmer Lee has been confined to the hospital on account of illness. His condition was nothing to warrant apprehension by his relatives and friends.

Carl Osterberg, of Cedar Rapids, was in Waterloo last Saturday. He made a business trip to Chicago the last of the week in the interest of the Frats.

Lyle Toomseen and brother came from Ackley on Thursday to attend the auto show. They returned home the same day and report a fine time.

Walter Fulkerson, who has been employed in the Rath Packing House for the past year, resigned there and accepted a better position at Waterloo Gasoline Co.

The Sunday School for the Deaf is always a good place to get together and learn the way to Heaven and to enjoy the fellowship of live people—young, middle-aged and elderly—so come and get in the bunch every Sunday. Mrs. Geo. Crosby is the leader. Rev. Rutherford, well known minister, is on his monthly trip to preach in Waterloo and Cedar Falls

Earl Moss has good employment in the Repass Auto Garage.

Miss Mary Ray was the hostess to a company of deaf ladies at her home in Cedar Falls this month, complimentary to Miss Edna Munger, who will become the bride of Henry Fleener, of Waterloo, next April 14th. Miss Munger received many beautiful gifts in the miscellaneous shower. Among the diversions was a mock wedding, which caused much merriment. After a program of contests, the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Robert Hogan is still under the Goodyear Hospital's care on account of his broken toe. He got hurt a day before being transferred, from the Flying Squadron, about taree weeks ago Best wishes go out to him for his speedy recovery from the Goodyear and Firestone colonies.

David Connor spent the week end in Cleveland with his deaf friends.

Robert Fire, of Pittsburgh, Pa., Christopher Arnold, of Missouri, W. H. Wherry, of Phoenix, Arizona, and George Kimmich, of Canton, are new arrivals at Goodyear, all working.

The Local Division, N. F. S. D., will give a banquet in Art's Cafeteria, Saturday evening, March 27th, to the members.

Akron promises to be a large city this year. A new ten story hotel, with 500 rooms, on East Market Street, to cost about $3,000,000, is assured; another fourteen story hotel with 700 rooms, on South Plain Street, to cost less than $5,000,000, will be erected at once. The Silent Co-operative Grocery Store on Goodyear Heights also is making fast strides.

W. H. Wherry, who recently joined the Goodyear Colony, said that some one stole his gold watch from under his pillow, while he was asleep in the Pullman car, on the way to Akron from Arizona. He was educated in the Tucson School for the Deaf in that State.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Krohngold have returned to Akron after an extended visit with her relatives in Marietta and Parkersburg, W. Va. They also visited friends in Columbus.

Mrs. Robert Hogan, formerly Ione Dix, is working in the Goodyear Office at present, and is making the finest wages that she ever earned in her life.

Jacob W. W. Powell, one of Akron's oldest deaf residents, died in Akron on February 19th, after a week's illness. He was 76 years old, and is survived by three daughters; also by several grandchildren and two or three brothers. The funeral services were held at Billow's Chapel, Saturday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Sherman officiating. George Grimm interpreted the services for the benefit of the deaf present. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes, and many of the older citizens of Akron were there to pay a last tribute to their friend The pall bearers were M. J Grimm, Lemen Gibson, Martin Stetzer, Jacob Emerling, Ralph Dan and William Toomey. Interment was made in Glendale Cemetery.

The following is taken from the Wingfoot Clan:—

"The Fatal Necklace," first production of the Silent Dramatic Club, went over big with the crowd which attended the Silent Athletic Club show, at the gymnasium, Saturday night.

"Many of the crowd went out of curiosity and got the surprise of their lives. The Silent Boys are mimics of exceptional ability, and the one-act farce comedy was staged with professional polish. R. L. Korns, who directed the production, read the lines for the benefit of the speaking portion of the audience.

"Miss Florence Nesbit, of the Typist Department of the General Office, gave a classical dance, and Kreigh Ayres and Harold Newman staged a 'monologue.'"

Two big basket-ball games are scheduled for next week. Goodyear Regulars meet the Silents in a league contest, and the Regular girls play the Silent girls in a preliminary. The games were scheduled for March 17th, but owing to a dance that night they will either be played, March 15 or 18.

MRS. CARO G. SHAW DEAD

WAS DAUGHTER OF REV. DR. THOMAS GALLAUDET.

Mrs. Caro Gallaudet Shaw, widow of Alexander D. Shaw, of Staten Island and this city, died on Saturday last at the home of her son, Munson Gallaudet Shaw, 24 West Fifty-fifth Street, after an illness of six weeks Since the death of her husband six years ago, Mrs. Shaw had passed much of the time in England with her daughter, Lady Birkbeck, wife of Major-Gen. Sir William H Birkbeck, where she remained until after the end of the war. She came here last autumn, and since that time had been with her son.

Mrs. Shaw was the eldest daughter of the late Rev. Dr Thomas Gallaudet, for many years rector of St. Ann's Church in West Eighteenth Street, near Fifth Avenue, where there was a special mission for deaf-mutes. It was her grandfather, the Rev. Dr. Thomas Gallaudet, who introduced the sign language for deaf-mutes in this country, after having learned the single hand method in France.

She is survived by two children. Lady Birkbeck is now on the way here from England. Dr. Bern Budd Gallaudet is her brother, and her sisters are the Misses Virginia and Elizabeth Gallaudet and Mrs. Richard M. Sherman, of this city, and Mrs H. S. Smith, of Texas.—Sun and Herald.

A VETERAN GONE.

Mr. W. O. Connor, for fifty years Superintendent of the Georgia School, at Cave Spring, died February 18th, of the infirmities of age. He began his work as a teacher in the Georgia School before the Civil War, but left the school room for the camp, and was for four years a gallant soldier of the Confederacy. After the war he reorganized the Georgia school and was made its head serving until 1916, when he retired on account of age, and was made Principal-Emeritus. He took a prominent part in the affairs of the profession, and was repeatedly honored by his associates at national gatherings with offices of trust and responsibility. He had a warm heart and a kindly humor that endeared him to those with whom he came in contact, and few men in the profession had so many devoted personal friends as he. The news of his death will be received with a sigh by all who were privileged to know him—Kentucky Standard.

Grace Bussel of Australia

A steamer coasting along the west shore of Australia ran aground in the shallow water and was unable to back off. The pounding of the surf opened the seams of the vessel and it began to leak. Though the steamer was so near to land, yet the forty-eight people on board, passengers and crew, were unable to reach the shore. The rough waves made it impossible to swim. They were out of the lines of regular steamers and there was little hope of getting help.

Then suddenly, away in the distance, they spied a girl on horseback riding toward the steamer, They waved flags of distress to attract her attention. Grace Bussel, a stockman's daughter, was out on one of her daily rides. She saw the waving flags and rode to the shore.

She took in the situation at a glance, the shallow water and the rough surf. She urged her horse boldly into the water and rode out to the steamer. The men, women and large children, held on the stirrup straps as Grace rode back to land. The smaller children were carried in her strong arms. For four hours she worked and brought everyone safely off the wrecked steamer

Then Grace set out at a gallop for home, eight miles inland, to get help. She was so exhausted that she fainted when she got there. When she came to she told her folks of the people down on the seacoast. The men started off in wagons with food and dry clothes, and in a few hours brought them all to the Bussel homestead.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE.

The tenth annual supper of the Athletic Association was held in the Men's refectory on March 20th, and was attended by all of the members and a large number of the faculty. After the inner man had received all the necessary attention the following speakers were called upon by Toastmaster Haley:

Mr. Oscar D. Guire, Jr. . . . The Athlete
Mr. Joseph W. Bouchard . . . The Grind
Mr. H. D. Drake The Spectator
Mr. Ben M. Schowe Spirit

Ben M. Schowe, '18, came all the way down from Akron to make formal presentation of the Firestone trophy offered to the winner of the tennis singles held at Gallaudet every year. He was accompanied by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Dorothy Conover, also of the class of 1918.

A joint meeting of the Y. W. C. C. was held in Chapel Hall, on Sunday, March 21st. Mrs. McQuown, who spent several years in the Orient, and who during the course of this time became familiar with the habits and customs of the native, gave a talk on the Chrysanthemum Kingdom. The talk was illustrated by slides. This meeting was held in place of the regular Sunday afternoon services.

Downes, Gallaudet's all-round athlete, received an offer to join the Petersburg baseball team of the Virginia League but turned it down. Ferguson,' 19, who has made Washington his residence ever since leaving Kendall Green, also received a similar offer, and it is rumored that he refused it too.

Dr. Ely delivered the regular Faculty lecture on the evening of March 19th, with "Evolution" as his subject. This was a topic that appealed to the visit majority of undergraduates and as a result there was a large attendance. The speaker took hold of the subject with his usual fondness for Natural Science, and explained the many sound arguments to be brought forward in support of the theory of Evolution.

Lauritsen, '22, has been selected to fill the position of baseball manager, recently made vacant by the leaving of Frewing, '21.

FREDERICK, MD.

Last Saturday evening Mr. George Faupel entertained the Ely Literary Society with a very interesting lecture on the life of our possibly future president, Mr. Herbert Hoover. The speaker based his lecture chiefly on the important events occurring during Mr. Hoover's term as Food Administrator, thus the lecture was both interesting and instructive.

The Reserves of Gallaudet College journeyed to Frederick, Md., on Friday, March 12th, to play a return game with the supporters of the Orange and Black.

Time was called for the game promptly at 4 P.M, with Mr. Benson acting as referee.

The first half opened with a rush and ended in Gallaudet's favor 15 to 11. It was in that half that the Collegians put up a brand of passing that was not excelled by any team we have played against this season. It was like a well-drilled machine, and was the comment of all who saw them play. But the second half saw the tables turn, for the M. S. S. D. lads began to crawl up till they were on even terms Then the fun began, when shot after shot was caged in succession by our players, who did not stop till the sound of the whistle, which showed that they had compiled a score of 33 to 23. There were no individual stars on our team. All played in perfect harmony.

Ye scribe paid a visit to D. E. Moylan at the Frederick City Hospital, on Thursday of last week. Rev. Moylan underwent a successful operation last Monday afternoon and is now resting comfortably.

Notice has just been received of our School being admitted into the Frederick County High School league. Other members of the league are the High School of Thurmont, Hagerstown, Middletown, Brunswick, and Frederick. Ten games are scheduled for each team.

With almost the same material at hand as last year and a few new finds, Manager Benson enthusiastically voiced his prediction of a successful season. Besides the ten league games we are booked to meet several strong college teams.

With but four more games to be played the Buick team has the championship of this school already in its grasp, having won all seven games played so far. The Dodges are running second in the league, followed by the Cadillacs. The following players make up the Buick team: Metty, Serio, Drinks, Urbanski and Carroll.

Two new pupils were admitted to the Institution during the past week. There are now 137 pupils enrolled, which is the largest attendance since the founding of the school.

She had seven million dollars

He had 'leven million dollars,
So they merged their sentiments.

Is exactly thirty cents.

The Annual Grand Masquerade Ball given by the Frats of the Omaha Division, No. 32, Saturday evening, February 28th, at the Swedish Auditorium, was a howling success and the largest in the history of the division. Some 150, including children, were present, over 60 masqueraders joining in the grand march. There was such a large number of different characters shown in the costumes that the judges, Mrs. W. H. Rothert, Mrs. F. C. Holloway of Council Bluffs and Mr. A. L. Hurt had a most difficult task to decide the winners of the prizes, which were as follows:—

Most beautiful costume for ladies—Mrs John M O'Brien, as a jester, cut glass olive dish.

Handsomest man—Mr. Lawrence James, as the Sultan of Turkey, silver ash tray.

Most unique for ladies—Mrs. P. L. Axling, as a Court Lady of bygone days, salad bowl.

Most unique for men—Mr. Arthur G Nelson, as a paralytic, leather collar box.

Most comical for ladies—Mrs. J M. Thompson, as a negress, cut glass flower basket.

Most comical for men—Mr. Robert Brown, as a Hawaiian Book "The Yellow Typhoon."

The children's special prize, a box of candy, went to Grace Maxine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Long. She was dressed as an Irish "Colleen"

After the masks were removed, Miss Grace Mason delightfully rendered "America," which was followed by an original song and dance by Misses Nellie Johnson and Stacia Kuta, in costume, and was well received. A large number of couples danced to the accompaniment of a piano and drum.

There were a good many people from different parts of Nebraska and Iowa, who came to attend the Ball. So much for advertisting in advance.

Punch was served during the evening, by the Misses Susan Seivert and Lettie Kindred, who were attired in white.

The Sioux City boys went to the Iowa School in a bunch Sunday to visit, and left on the afternoon train for home.

They have monthly socials up there, and bade us come and pay a visit in reciprocation, and promise to show us a good time. We understand their next one will be March 27th, too soon to plan on going up. Out of town guests at the Ball were: Misses Gertrude and Effie Johnson, Lawton, Ia.; Miss Clara Rice, Sioux City, Ia.; Messrs Emil and August Valentine, Oswald Koschine, Roland Melrose, Nathan Fritz, Thomas Doherty, and Charles Humphrey, all of Sioux City, Iowa; and Joseph Stanton, of Struble, Iowa.

A Public Opinion Meeting was given Saturday evening, the 6th, at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, by the March Committee of the Frats, and about forty were present, but the program merited a much better attendance.

Mr. Jas. R. Jelinck, chairman of the committee, opened the program with a lecture by Prof. J. W. Sowell, on "Shakespeare's Art" in "Macbeth," which was remarkably well rendered, and very interesting. He held the audience spellbound to the end, for nearly an hour. Next on the program was a scene from Shakespeare's "King Henry VIII,"—Act III, Scene II, in which Dr. J. Schuyler Long was the King; Mr. W. H. Rothert, Cardinal Woolsey; Mr O. M Treuke, the Duke of Suffolk; Mr. Jas. R. Jelinck, the Duke of Surrey; and Mr. O. H. Blanchard, Oliver Cromwell.

This was very well carried out and received much applause. Mr. Rothert was in costume, as he had an important role, and made a very impressive cardinal. Mr. O. H. Blanchard was next on the program with a good string of Current Events. Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Seeley were down for a dialogue, but Mrs. Seeley was unable to be present.

"Down on the Farm," a musical comedy song was given by Mr H. G. Long, dressed as a regular Rube. He carried a live chicken, which "accidentally" laid an egg while making its debut in public. Mr. Jas. R. Jelinck started a discussion about the work being done by the National Association of the Deaf.

Lectures, plays and declamations like these should be given more often. The committee consisting of Chairman Jas. R Jelinck, James C. Clark is to be congratulated upon the excellence of their program.

Mr. Wm. Hartz, of Lincoln, Neb., is now setting type for Mr. P. L Axling, in Council Bluffs, and we understand has decided to stay. Glad to welcome him in our midst.

Mr. John Stodola of Benson, a suburb, of Omaha, whose folks live in Clarkson, Neb., was called home February 28th, on account of the death of a brother. Mr. Stodola is back again and resides with another brother in Benson, who is foreman of a section gang for the C. & N. W. Railway, and hired John to work for him. This is a very unusual job for the deaf. He says he likes it very much, and has no trouble looking out for trains.

Friday evening, March 9th, the girls' basket ball team of the Iowa School defeated the Nebraska girls' team, and the Nebraska boys' team defeated the Iowa boys' team at the Nebraska School, in a double game in which the girls' teams played first, and the boys then took their turn. A good many outsiders came to see the game, which was very interesting, and everybody had a good time.

FANWOOD.

Great manifestation of joy was evidenced by the cadets in the Study Room last Thursday evening, just before the Assembly Call for supper was sounded, when Major Van Tassel announced that he had received from Lieutenant J. S. Adair, an invitation to enter a company of cadets from this Institution in the competitive drill which will be held in the Twelfth Regiment Monday evening, May 3d.

A year ago a similar contest was held, and our provisional company was, victorious having beaten seven of the best boy military organizations in the city.

Although the time for practice is limited, all are determined that the trophy shall again be awarded to the company representing the Institution.

The Cadet Band will play for the ceremonies of the evening.

The Fanwood Literary Society meeting last Saturday night, was entertained by the Fifth B Grade. The program follows:

11. Recitation, "The Cross of Snow"—Olive Olsen.

Cadet First Sergeant Louis Cassinelli has completed a very creditable design for the cover of the new Annual Report the printing of which has just been completed by the pupils of the printing classes.

Last Friday afternoon Miss Michalena L. Carrol, our efficient Instructor of Industrial and Technical Art, escorted fourteen of her pupils to an exhibition of H. Humphrey Moore's collection of paintings, at the house of Mrs. Whitelock, 32 W. 73d Street. Mr. Moore personally received the class and explained to the boys all about the pictures. Mrs. Whitelock, who is a very genial lady, entertained the visitors with tea and light refreshments.

Miss Mabel Demarest, Art Teacher from the New Jersey School for the Deaf, and her aunt, Mrs. W. Brown, visited here Friday.

Principal and Mrs. Gardner were greatly elated on Saturday last, when news was received by them that their daughter Estelle, a Senior at Smith College, Northampton, had the great honor conferred upon her of being admitted to the Phi Beta Kappa Chapter of that College. This is the oldest Greek letter society of the American college, founded at William and Mary College, Virginia, in 1776, and having many chapters. Membership, which is purely honorary, is conferred only on students of high standing in the upper classes. It is not now a secret society, although originally so. Its badge is a gold watch key with simple emblems and inscriptions, and it derives its name from the initials of three Greek words meaning "Philosophy the Guide of Life."

"Miss Carter, Vice Principal of the Chefoo School for the Deaf, China, is still on furlough in the United States; and for the present is spending some time with us visiting classrooms and inspecting the work as it is carried on in our institution.

"She was recently made very happy by the receipt of a cheque from the Washington Heights School (Fanwood), New York City. The amount of the cheque is more than the value of a scholarship for a Chinese pupil in the Chefoo School for one year, and this scholarship will doubtless be continued in the years to come"—Rochester Advocate.

The graduated Class from the Castle School, a seminary for young ladies, accompanied by their teacher, Miss Elizabeth S. Lum, visited the several departments of the Institution Friday For the past several years Miss Lum has included visiting this Institution as part of her curriculum and is always a welcome visitor here.

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James S. Reide, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

In honor of the birthday of Mr George A. LeVan, on Sunday, March 7th, a few friends contrived to surprise him on the previous evening at his home, No. 3 35 North Seventh Street, and quite a successful and enjoyable evening was the result.

Le Van's stock of smoking accessories was considerably augmented on this occasion, and he was otherwise tickled by the congratulations and good will of his friends Refreshments were also enjoyed by those present, besides Mr. and Mrs. Le Van, who were: Mr and Mrs. Harry G. Gunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M Pennell, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Yerkes, Mr. and Mrs Joseph Mayer, Jr., and Messrs. William McKinney and Warren Smaltz.

Mrs. C. O. Dantzer left the city on Friday evening, March 12th, for Indianapolis, Ind., for an extended visit to her aged mother at that place. If all things continue well she may not return till the latter part of next June. Rev. Mr. Dantzer remains behind to continue his pastoral duties.

We called on Mr. Patrick O'Brien on Sunday, March 14th, and were pleased to find him downstairs after having been abed with rheumatism for a long time. As a result of his long, enforced idleness, he has taken on a considerable amount of flesh, but he is still unable to leave the house, walking with the aid of a crutch and cane. We hope that he will continue to improve and ultimately be able to "race" with us again.

Mr Harry E. Stevens, a candidate for treasurer in the recent primary election of the N. A. D. polled a total of seventy six votes, which is considered very good, considering that he is not so well known as his successful rival, and especially in the West. Mr. Stevens has been evincing more than common interest in the affairs of the N. A. D., but so far has not held important office in the Association, and consequently has not achieved a national reputation as yet. But, if given a trial, he will doubtless prove his worth. By profession, he is an architect of no mean ability. Always extremely careful about his personal appearance and habits, and with the poise of a gentleman, he would do credit to the Association as an officer. And besides he is a stickler for system in work and keeping records, prompt, efficient and active, making him well qualified for the responsible position he aspires to. His local reputation for business ability and integrity is well-known and appreciated, and he is one of our most willing workers He was treasurer of All Souls' Church for the Deaf for a long period, and now serves in a similar capacity for the Gallaudet Club and the Men's Club. It is his good record that prompts us to make these statements for those who may be interested to know more about him before they cast their final vote for the election of a treasurer, for we understand that Mr. Stevens will leave his candidacy to the final decision of the voters of the N A. D.

Rabbi Harry W. Ettelson, of Rodelph Shalem Synagogue, addressed the Beth Israel Association for the Deaf on Sunday afternoon, March 14th. Mr. Louis Steinhauer, of New York City, was a visitor on on this day.

Mr. David Speece, of Camden, N. J., recently invested in a building lot, intending to improve it at some future day. A short time afterwards he received notice to vacate the house he has been living in for several years. It is a trying time for him, for it is very hard to find a house that can be rented these days.

Mr. William H. Blessing, of Norfolk, Va., made his third visit to Philadelphia on Sunday, March 14th

Miss Anges Fleming, who has been living here since last Fall, returned to her Virginia home on Tuesday, March 16th.

The arrival of a girl has gladdened the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McIntyre.

KENSINGTON, PA.

In a social way, graced by a splendid gathering of the fair damsels and young bachelors, who came to do a full measure of justice to an event that was sponsored by the Messrs. Albert W. Wolf, John A. Roach, and William E. Rothemund on the thirteenth instant, at the Eastioga residence of M. Wolf in that part of Kensington.

Bedecken as it was in its appearance of green ornaments, out of convenience to make the day a pre-St. Patrick's celebration, it was clearly evidenced that the majority of the guests came of Celtic origin, which gave the occasion a real touch of Irish flavor, while, on the other hand, there were several of Dutch extraction in the remaining guests As usual, and in true to the old saying, the Irish jokes beat the Dutch ones, at this party. Witty and clever as he is, Mr. James Jennings favored those present with some of his comical impersonations of familiar characters, that brought many a ticklish laugh.

Old favorites in the matter of parlor diversions were elected to rule the evening, and because of their constant joy giving qualities, they were necessarily prolonged under pressure of temptation, and during all their while, time was utterly forgotten by the guests, not knowing how fast it flew by.

Aside from indulging in the foregoing games, the spacious living room afforded an opportunity for dancing which was readily accéded to by the many who whirled and glided with marked agility in the terpischorean art.

Wearing the latest brand of Dennison crepe headgear, the guests penetrated the third room in their advance during the evening, to assemble around a broad oval-shaped table for their feast of delicacies that were exquisitely arranged in keeping with the hospitable traditions of the Wolf household. Following the aftermath of partaking a very excellent menu, there began a sharp retreat from the third room, amid bursting novelty balloons, having a green hue, which each one received as a token of the occasion. In the entanglement of warring balloons, only few survived the battle, and with this were the few lucky possessors of them, who carefully stowed them away to take home as souvenirs.

That the party was an enjoyable one can be indicated by its mirthfulness that was carried well into the morning. Of the guests that made up the personnel of the evening were: Misses Loretta Haines, Annie Hagan, Mary Golden, Isbella Long, Edna Snell, Ellen Orberg, Beryle Kendall, Anna McBride, Rebecca Kositsky; Messers. Robert Bennett, John Nowacki, James Barrett, William Smith, Lewis Long, James Jennings, William Brogan, Albert Wolf, John Roach and William Rothemund.

Newark, N. J.

On Sunday evening, March 12th, Rev. Mr. F. C. Smielau, of Pennsylvania, was expected to conduct the Lenten Service in Trinity House, but to a disappointed crowd he was unable to do so through sickness. His place was taken by a local helper.

Unfortunately on Saturday evening, March 13th, the weather was raging through a blizzard, and it was feared that the lecture under the auspices of the Trinity Mission, which Mr. J. P. Walker, of Trenton, intended to give, would be given up, but to the committee's surprise, the audience, of about one hundred, braved the storm and presented themselves in Trinity House. When Mr. Walker did not show up at 8:30 they became uneasy, but a little latter he entered.

His presence was received with much applause, and he at once gave a good reading on "Shams," and being very fluent in sign language, he kept the audience in delightful spirits. His subject, which was instructive and advisable, was well worthy for the deaf to remember. It brought forth the idea that we must avoid the temptations, which are liable to come to cause our downfall. He ended amid a rousing applause. The crowd would have been bigger if the weather had been permissible. Many New Yorkers were also noticed among the audience. It is understood that Mr. Walker will be willing to appear and give another lecture next fall, if nothing prevents him from doing so. Mr. Walker had been Principal of the New Jersey School, but retired from the position recently.

The Newark Division, No. 42, N. F. S D., wishes to announce a whist and pinochle party, to be given in the room of New Jersey Deaf-Mutes' Society, No. 200 Market Street, on Saturday evening, April 10th. Prizes will be awarded and the admission will be twenty-five cents.

A few words of information in a letter postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest

Quite a joyful incident marked the meeting of the Woman's Parish Aid Society, on Thursday evening, March 18th, in the Assembly Room of the Guild House of St. Ann's Church.

The Men's Club met on the same evening in their club rooms on the second floor, and with the ladies planned a surprise to Mrs. Chamberlain, who on that day reached her 81st milestone on the road of life.

A joint contribution by the two organizations resulted in the purchase of a big box of carnations and roses and a pot of tulips, which were presented to the bewildered lady, who had been inveigled into the meeting of the Parish Aid Society. The men had trooped down a few minute previous, and there was great applause at the presentation.

Addresses were made by both ladies and gentlemen, and Mrs. Chamberlain's response was conveyed through the deft fingers and poetical gestures of Rev. Mr. Kent.

Then all formed in line and for the next twenty minutes Mrs. Chamberlain was deluged with kisses from the fair sex and handclasps of the men of mighty sinew from the athletic and other branches of the Club

Mrs. Chamberlain does not look her fourscore years, and her springy step and graceful carriage suggests a lady hovering around the half century of life. Who can doubt that gentle ways and kindly deeds are the real secret of perennial youth.

Rev. Dr. Chamberlain, who is himself a sprightly youth in his eighty second year, blushed like a schoolboy when his turn came to greet the partner of his joys and sorrows with a loving kiss.

Frats Hold Whist Party

On the evening of Saturday, March 13th, there started a good-sized blizzard which threatened to mar the attendance to the Whist Party, which was being held by the Greater New York "Frats," in the S. A. C. Club rooms in Brooklyn.

But the committee had a real surprise when, by 10 o'clock, the rooms were quietly crowded and the game was in full swing with every table occupied by those who were lucky to come earlier. "Lucky" is the right word, as when the time for the distribution of the prizes came everybody was surprised, as the prizes proved to be real greenbacks just fresh from Uncle Sam's Mint.

Following is a list of the winners:—

The first prizes: Three dollars, Rose Quinn, James Caligure.

The second prizes: Two dollars, N Alexander, A. Ginzler.

The third prizes: One dollar, W. Davis, John D Shea.

Booby prizes: fifty cents, J. Alexander, R. Anderson.

After the games there was dancing by the younger set. It was well in the wee sma' hours of the morning before anybody thought of going home.

The committee was composed as follows: Charles Sanford, chairman; Henry Dramis, Issy Blumenthal, John Stigliabotti, Morris Plapinger and F. W. Meinken.

H. A. D. NOTES

A fairly good-sized crowd was present, despite the mushy weather, on Friday evening, March 19th, when Mr. Macrcus L. Kenner was the speaker. His topic was on "Loyalty and Service."

This Friday evening, the 26th, Mr. Morris E. Siegel, Director of New York City Evening Schools, will lecture on "Education for Working Men." All welcome.

Last Sunday evening, the 21st, was "Ladies' Night" exclusively. True to suffragette form, the ladies under the efficient chaperonage of Mrs. Arnold A. Cohn, unceremoniously invaded the best room of the Communal Center and launched into secret conclave. The protestations of "mere man" were of no avail. He simply had to step aside.

The next "Moving Picture Night" takes place this Sunday evening, March 28th, 8 P.M. sharp. Please remember the date and come early to secure seats.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Donovan gave a shower party, at their residence, March 21st, in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Christina Kaufmann and Mr. James A. Harrington. Many beautiful gifts were showered on them. The dining room was tastefully decorated. A delicious supper was served, including a big cake, baked at a skilled bakery. There was plenty of real Old California Port punch. A very enjoyable time was spent in music and dancing, and new amusing games were played. Those present were Christina Kaufmann, Elizabeth Cullen, Nellie McGarvey, Miss Arnold, Pauline Martine, Dorothy Norbitt, Alice Nobitt, Mr. and Mrs. James Constantin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Buckley, Harry P. Kane, William Deegan, Frank E. Fluhr, James A. Harrington, Harry J. Powell, Michael Leo, Mr. McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Donovan and children, and Mr. Bing. The guests departed at a late hour, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Donovan heartily, for the very pleasant time.

Friday evening, March 12th, the American Society of Deaf Artists held their annual business meeting at the studio of Mr. Jacques Alexander. The officers, who so carefully piloted the society through many years, asked that they be allowed to retire to less arduous work, and that new blood, be brought forward. Results were: Mr. A. Ljungquist was elected President; Miss A. Foussadier, Vice-President; Victor Anderson, Secretary; C. Barnes, Treasurer. Several committees were formed, and plans outlined for activities in both educational and social ways. As in the past, the society will maintain its honors as entertainers par excellence at its dinners, and one will be held in April or May. Those who attended its last dinner will remember Mrs. Sanders, and her speech to us there. We are happy to have seen her portrait in the papers as a district leader of the Democratic Party of the city. The Society is well mentioned by the French Commission in their report.

A birthday party was given to Louis Baker at his residence in Brooklyn, Saturday evening. It was a surprise party arranged by Joseph Zeiss, who has worked so hard to make the party one of the best in Brooklyn. While the crowd assembled at Baker's home, he was working overtime, and his wife had some one to telephone to him to come home at once, saying his home was robbed. It made him hurry with speed, and when he got home, he walked right into the crowd that was in the parlor. He really was surprised, and Joe Zeiss made a very neat speech, speaking how we felt for him. The guests were all asked to say something. Games were played and refreshments were served at a late hour in the morning. Benj. Friedwald told many good short stories that kept the guests awake. They all departed for home in the early hours of the morning.

A very pleasant surprise, in the form of a linen shower, was given to Miss Susan Golden, by a number of her former schoolmates at St. Joseph's Institute in Brooklyn, who gathered at the home of Miss Frances Julian's sister, in Crown Heights, March 11th. Miss Golden was recipient of many very beautiful gifts, and is to be married in St. Francis Xavier's Church, on Easter Sunday.

Those present at the surprise were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Lynch, Mrs. J. Gabriel, Misses Mary and Rose Quinn, Misses Nellie and Grace Costello, the Misses Anna C. Mentor, M. Payne, Dorothy Hanson, Frances Julian, Fannie Maher and Sophie Zahn.

Mr. Frankenheim is still with the firm of Lee, Higginson & Co., and begs to call their attention to his advertisement in this paper. He has been with the firm for nearly ten years, and is always at the service of anyone needing assistance or information in regard to investment of funds in good and sound bonds.

The Oakland Basketball team of St. Joseph's Institute, Westchester, N. Y., will meet the basket ball team of the Lexington Avenue School, on Sunday, March 28th, at 3 P.M, on Oakland Court. The winners will be awarded a silver cup. Many will recollect the close game played by the schools last year. The L A. A. emerged victorious and secured the silver cup. It was a fine exhibition from beginning to end and the hearty applause of the big crowd present showed its appreciation. This year another cup will be offered, and we may safely assert that the game will be as good if not better than last year's. We hope to see the Oakland and L. A. A rooters out in full force to cheer on their respective teams.

St. Patrick's Day was the occasion of a lovely time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Westlake, it being Mr Westlake's birthday. Refreshments were served, and all continued at the merry making till early hours of the morning. Among the merry makers were the Mr. and Mrs. Dombert, Mr. and Mrs. Scherer, Mr. and Mrs. Westlake, Mrs. H. Lanning, Misses Annie Collins and E. Miller, Mr Stoak, Mr. Leo and A. Loner.

All entries to games held at the 22d Regiment Armory on April 17th, must reach Mr. Nimmo on or before the 1st of April. His address is 3975 Broadway.

Silent Martin on Friday night, March 19th, defeated Johnny Howard in an eight-round bout in Paterson, N. J.

The Clark Deaf Mutes A. A. have engaged Ulmer Park for their Picnic on Saturday, July 31st, 1920.

Grogan, late Supreme Knight of the Knights of De l'Epee, by assisting at Holy Mass and receiving Holy Communion for the repose of his soul, this Sunday morning, March 28th, at 9 o'clock, in the Sodality Hall of St. Francis Xavier College, 30 West 16th Street. Rev. Hugh A. Dalton, S.J., Chaplain, will be the celebrant of the Mass.

SEATTLE.

Edmund Langdon has returned to California, after a hurried trip to Seattle to attend the funeral of his father.

Mrs. Olof Hanson has returned from a visit of several months to her old home in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Roy Hawley is visiting her parents in Portland for the month.

N. C. Garrison, of Camano, was visiting in Seattle the first of the month.

At the last election of the Puget Sound Association of the Deaf, the following new officers were elected: Lawrence Belsor, President; Mrs. Edith Larson, Vice President; John Bodley, Treasurer; Oscar Sanders, Secretary; O. Larson, Sergeant-at-Arms; and W. S Root and True Partridge were chosen Directors after a spirited contest. With the exception of the two "Mature" Directors, the entire new official family is made up of the younger blood in Seattle's deaf population and great things are expected for the Association in the coming year.

John Skoglund is back at his old job on the Post-Intelligencer, after a visit in Spokane, where he, his wife and baby, all went through a seige of the "Flu."

Frank Hunt Thompson, Gallaudet, '16, and his charming wife, Ethel Harold Thompson, Gallaudet, '18, are now at home to their friends at Port Stanley, Orcas Island, Wash.

The business of Root's Printery has shown such a steady growth that "Billy" found it necessary to take in an assistant, and for this purpose, he has been so fortunate as to secure the services of Larry Belsor, ex-photographer and beau brummel of the local deaf. Besides the new motor and press he recently had installed, Root has placed an order for a fine lot of new job type.

L. O. Christenson has added a new 10x15 Gordon press and motor to his printing establishment and also a nice new series of job type. Job printing on an independent scale for the deaf seems to be the real thing in this section—when you know how.

A. W. Wright, who is foreman on the P. I., and raises "chickens," both the feathered and pulchra puella type, has had unusual success with his white Leghorns the past year, he having started with 500 "Day Olds" last summer and sold about $800 worth of eggs and broilers. Then to cap the climax of his good fortune he sold his 140 laying pullets for about $1.75 each, and now is enlarging his poultry houses to hold at least 1000 chix for the coming summer. A. W. pays strict attention to his flock and makes frequent trips to the Poultry Experiment Station near Tacoma. Mr. Wright has sold his city residence, and with his wife, his charming daughters, one of whom is now a Junior in High School, and one son, have purchased a nice little three acre "city farm" just outside the city limits on a brick paved boulevard, only about forty minutes by an auto or street car from his work in the city, and at his present rate, A. W. will, in all probability, be the first of our "Deaf Millionaires."

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Axt celebrated George's birthday, Sunday March 1st, and quite a number of the deaf spent the day with them, presenting Mr. Axt with a nice rocker as a rememberance.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Riley, of Victoria, B. C., are extending congratulations to the young couple on the birth of a seven-and one-half-pound son, which occurred March 2d. Mrs. Riley is a former Seattle girl, before her marriage being Miss Elsie Peterson, Gallaudet, '16.

Quite a number of Seattle deaf now work in printing shops Without counting Root and Christenson, the plutocrats, we hear that Thos. Mueller is with the Sherman Press, Oscar Sanders and Ed. Martin are with Lowman and Hanford; Will West is a presser feeder at McMann's; Wright, Gumaer and Skoglund are with the Post Intelligencer; Roy Hawley, at last accounts, was with Lowman and Hanford, and Larry Belsor the "Devil" at Roots.

W. S. Root was surprised on his birthday by a number of friends, who, declaring they hated to see a scraggy beard on a handsome face, left a useful gift on their departure.

The Local Frats have secured quarters at the Y. M. C. A. and held their first meeting there Saturday eve, March 6.

Claude Zeigler is another Seattle man who believes in "city farms," as he has bought land near Wrights and is busily engaged in clearing it and erecting a dwelling. As a starter Claude has invested in 100 baby chicks and a brooder.

Jack Bertram is still holding down his Seattle job, but goes home to that dear Puyalip every night. No wonder the Interurban Company has been able to declare fat dividends lately.

Chas Frederickson, who runs a shoe repairing shop at Stanwood, has recently built a nice new store building, and his shop occupies one half while the other half has been rented to a retail shoe store. Mighty convenient for the customers to buy shoes in one room and step around to the next to have them repaired.

"GARRY."

An Explanation.

EDITOR DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL:—There appeared in a recent issue of our valuable paper a newsletter from Albany signed "D——," whose statements about the local council do not ring true.

First—The writer in question printed an authorized (?) statement from her own important self, that some mutes came ostensibly to attend the masque, as per the date announced in the Frat, only to find the same having been postponed until April 10th; whereas, in reality, Brothers Glenson and Miller made the occasion doubly smooth by attending our February regular meeting. The mistake about the change of dates having been made on our own reponsibility, a motion was quickly made seconded and adopted without quibbling that their car fares be reimbursed.

Second—The Frat is not responsible for the above mistake, as stated in the Albany letter. We consider the welfare of our order above all things. Therefore the Albany writer is urged not to send out such information without first obtaining either permission or verification from our Entertainment Committee for this year. Further argument on this subject is unnecessary.

We have several reasons to rectify in the Albany letter, but trust these reasons suffice for the time being.

Fraternally,
HOWARD BEDELL, Secretary.

Wedding Bells.

On Saturday evening, March 6th, at the home of the groom's father, Mr Michael Grod and Miss Mary Wriegler were married by the Rev. John H. Kent. The parlor was prettily decorated with pink and white festoons, and the ceremony was performed under a bower, from which hung a large wedding bell. The best man was Harry Grod, and the matron of honor Mrs. Louis Laureys. After the wedding, there was dancing till near midnight, when a bountiful collation was served. Mr. Grod's father presided at the feast, and kept things in perpetual merriment. The newly weds were the recipients of numerous useful presents. They will make their future home in Jersey City. Both are graduates of the Trenton School. The groom is a skilled mechanic and holds a responsible position with a large manufacturing concern in New Jersey. Among the guests present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Glynn, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vaughn, Mr. Harry Dixon, Mr. Thomas Kelley, Mrs. Mabel Zorn and her children, Mabel and Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grod, Mrs. Frank Wriegler, Mrs. Bassett and children, and numerous hearing friends and relatives of the young couple.

HARTFORD

The School has the usual Easter recess or vacation, March 31st to April 6th. It is announced that graduation will be June 9th.

Messrs. Carl Berer, of Bristol, and Ernest Smith, gardener at the School, have been patients recently in Ward 3, at Hartford Hospital. Both ill with grippe.

James L. Frellick, of Stamford, was in Bridgeport, Sunday, March 14th, and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Griffin. He expressed regret of both himself and wife that they should not see their friend of many years' standing this Lent, Mr. E. W. Frisbee, of Boston. Mr. Frisbee's domestic arrangements prevent his visiting here in Connecticut, for the first Lenten season in ten consecutive years.

Mr. E. C Luther, of West Hartford, has been ill with the grippe, and on Sunday, March 21st, was unable to fill an appointment in Waterbury, Ct., assisting at the Silent Mission service.

Information has been received in this town of the birth of a baby son to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ercoliani, at Pittsfield, Mass., the date being February 21st, if we are not mistaken. Mrs. Ercoliani before her marriage was Julia Savino, of Waterbury, Ct., and very popular with every one in that goodly community of deaf people.

A party of deaf friends gathered at the home of Bernard Sullivan, of New Haven, on Sunday evening, March 14th. When in the school here some years ago, this young man was an able base-ball player. But we never heard of his being much in demand among the many amateur base-ball nines of New Haven. It is probably not easy for a deaf base ball player to play acceptably with a hearing team.

Among the deaf who have recently come to Springfield, Mass, a return home from that Ohio Mecca of great rubber works, are Raymond L. Brown, and Preston Barr, Jr. Both have work and as great opportunity at the Fisk Rubber works in Springfield. Mr. Barr is one of Miss Yale's bright boys and a graduate of the Massachusetts Agricultural College at Amherst, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William G Abbott and little son, of Springfield, have all been ill with the grippe lately Mr. Abbott had an offer from the building firm he has worked for during past six years, to go to South America, but the call to remain in this country seemed the stronger and the wiser.

Mr. R Newton Parsons, who for a number of years was a traveling book agent, and has traveled very extensively about the United States, has for the past three years been a time clerk of a Springfield manufacturing concern.

The Hartford daily papers recently contained a news item, that the contract for building the new main school building at West Hartford had been made with the understanding that it should be completed and ready for occupancy in the summer of 1920. During the past winter some excavation and grading work has been done in spite of very adverse weather conditions.

Mrs. Edward P. Clarke (nee Kipp) is on the Labor Party ticket as candidate for School Committee of this city. Both Mr. and Mrs. Clarke (he was formerly Principal of the Rome, N. Y., School) are no longer Socialists, but enthusiastic members of the new National Labor Party. This party's political ideas are certainly radical enough to bewilder most folks, though delighting Mr. and Mrs. Clarke. But, alas and alack! that our sisters, mothers and wives, should be out for political places and political associations Because it seems so certain that thereby they will lose something of that nicer quality and refinement that makes the average woman superior to the average man. And while women can write and pass laws, it seems to require the muscles and bludgeons of men to enforce them.

The funeral of James D Bartlett, of West Haven, age seventy-seven years, was held at Walker's Undertaker's room on Chapel Street, in New Haven, Sunday afternoon, February 15th. The interment later on was in the cemetery at North Guilford, not far from the the farm house where the deceased and his wife lived for many years. Mrs. Bartlett died in May, 1919, so the husband survived the wife about nine months. He was ill for only a few days, and his housekeeper, Mrs. Kolb, a hearing lady, was fortunate to obtain the services of Alfred A. Stevenson, of New Haven, as nurse, and he was with Mr. Bartlett day and night for the last four days of his life, proving himself an efficient and able nurse. Mr. Bartlett is survived by a son and five or six grandchildren.

Horace, age ten years, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H D. Lee Clark, of 1108 Boulevard, this city, died in the Hartford Hospital, Monday night, Feburary 16th. He had been ill with pneumonia about a week. He had been a pupil at the School and was a bright little fellow, but had always been delicate. His father had called to see the boy that evening and left him resting comfortably. At midnight he had a sudden relapse and died, his heart unable to stand the strain. Much sympathy has been expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Clark in their bereavement.

Several of the Bristol young men and two or three from Hartford, attended the Frat Ball in Brooklyn, New York City, Saturday night, February 14th. Among others these attended: Messrs. Sinnert, W. T. Frazier, Joseph Gerard, Lewis Collins, Matt. Bakos, C. A Olsen and Frank Tremonte. Also from Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. John E Haggerty. It was a very crowded affair, and we understand the boys returned a bit weary and disappointed, as there was little opportunity to be introduced and so to meet others properly. Just so. It is the way of that terrifying place, New York, always too many there for comfort, or health, or even decency. Now, old Hartford is a good, quiet, restful, comfortable place to live in, and the wonder still is that some of our New York deaf friends don't move up this way. Perhaps they have the New York habit and can't break away from it.

The huge manufacturing plant of the Remington Fire Arms Co in Bridgeport, covering acres of big buildings and where during the late war days ten thousand munition workers were busy day and night, has been sold to the General Electric Co. Quite a number of deaf used to work there in war days, but now scattered and at other jobs. This new concern has already two great manufacturing plants in New England, one at Lynn, Mass., and the other at Pittsfield, Mass., and deaf are employed in both places. It is one of the world's great manufacturing concerns.

Layreader W. G. Durian, of Hartford, went to Pittsfield, Mass, on Sunday afternoon, March 7th, following the violent storm of March 5th. He got there after some delay of train, and found Pittsfield snowed in and no trolley cars able to run, and only one other soul at the Church service. At 4 P.M. he went to the depot, and after a long wait for a train boarded one for Springfield, where he was to conduct services that evening. The train, however, took him up to North Adams, and deposited him in that town in drifts of snow that were amazing to look at. There fearing he would have to spend the night, he started out on a long hunt through the drifted streets, till he finally found the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Burdick, who were much astonished to see him, and also very glad to see him. Monday noon he arrived back in Hartford, none the worse for his experience, and with much to tell Madam, the wife. What her comments on his adventure were we have not heard. Nor the comments of some twelve or more who came to Church in Springfield and waited a couple hours for the preacher who did not come.

By the Almanac, and that never-failing timepiece of the Lord's, the sun, it is spring. Everything except the polar bears in the Bronx Park Zoo, New York, must be heartily glad the winter of 1920 is gone. There is still a lot of ice and snow hereabouts, and to the north of us, and the Connecticut River is still icebound. Nevertheless it is SPRING. A Great Man in Washington, in fact a United States Senator, has sent us a package of vegetable seeds—onion, cabbage, lettuce, beets, etc.—and it has reminded us of a thing or two we will set down here for the paper, if the Editor will tolerate it. First, how did the Great Man in Washington know of a poor and obscure deaf minister, who never set eyes on him in his life. And where and how did the Great Man get these fine garden seeds that he franked through the mails for nothing? Somebody had to pay for it all, and who? The Government of course. And where does the dear old United States Government get the money, it seems to spend freely? We humbly suggest to the teachers of the deaf in the schools that they put up this question to their pupils: Where does the United States Government get all its money for free garden seeds to the millions, who farm and garden, and for bonuses to all the able young men home from the war, and for new post office buildings, and so on. If money don't cost the Government or the people anything, we wish the Great Man in Washington would at once before Easter comes send us a new pair shoes and a new hat, both of which we are in dire need. And secondly: We shall not use these garden seeds. The price of city garden plots in this town has gone so high in rental that we can not afford a garden. Our faithful old hoe and steel-toothed rake will hang up to rust on the back porch this summer. That healthy and sweaty discipline of body and soul arising from the attempts to save a bushel or two of fresh vegetables from countless strangling weeds, and untold billions of crawling and flying pests, is not for us this year of Grace. We shall miss this usual summer discipline, and in the early fall shall probably have to pay forty cents a dozen for Golden Bantam sweet corn that was raised down in New Jersey somewhere, and more than stale when it gets to the Hartford markets and our little tin skillet over the oil-stove. A happy Easter with its holy hope, we extend to all who may read these columns.

Hartford, March 20, 1920.

OHIO.

[News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 993 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.]

March 20, 1920—There was a special call for chapel Wednesday morning of officers, teachers, employes and pupils. Various were the conjectures for it. Some imagined it was on the matter of an increase of pay for the institution officers and employes, or a talk by some important personage.

After the usual devotional service Superintendent Jones announced he had received that morning a letter from Prof. E. A. Fay of Gallaudet College, asking the school to do what it could for the distressed people mentioned in the letter.

Dr. S. Krenberger, Director of the Jewish Deaf-Mute Institutions in Vienna, Austria, one of the oldest and best schools in Europe had written Dr. Fay of the deporable condition of his teachers, twelve—nine men and three women—and asked help for them of teachers of the American School, as the Austrian State is entirely cut off from the sources of producing food stuff States, and America the only point from which relief can come. The underfed children of the school can obtain a supply through the Hoover agency, but with the teachers it is quite rent. They are on a low fixed income, and Austrian money now is almost worthless, and hence they have none to buy food with They thus appeal to teachers of the United States to come to their aid by sending food through the warehouse established by Mr. Hoover. The money raised to be sent to Dr. Fay and he will turn it over to the proper agency in Washington, where an order will be given for food to the person it is ordered for from the warehouse in Austria, and in this way relief with come quicker. Urgent speed was requested.

Superintendent asked the teachers to take up collections in their classes and bring the amount to his clerk in the afternoon. Collectors were appointed for other departments The sum of $90 was recevied and has been forwarded to Dr. Fay.

The School was honored with a trophy this week gained by its Boy Scouts, Troop No. 18, in tests of resuscitation of drowning, firemen's lift and carry, and a litter drill. The contest took place last Saturday evening in the City Hall, Troop 1 came out second, and Troop 5 third. The two latter were composed of hearing boys.

Tuesday evening the troop was called to the Court house, when in one of the Court rooms the prize was bestowed up it by one of the test judges.

The prize is a bronze plate in the shape of a shield suitably engraved, and hearing the inscription.

CITY CHAMPIONSHIP.
ANNUAL TEST AID CONTEST.
Won by.....

At chapel service Tuesday morning, Superintendent Jones spoke at the Troop's good work and congratulated the members for their accomplishments, and invited them to dine with him in the evening.

Mr. Warren Whiteacre, of Cygnet, Ohio, came down Monday to visit his sick son, Marion, who has been in the hospital since the first of March, suffering from the flu and pneumonia Saturday last he was operated upon to relieve congestion in one of his lungs. He is now on the road of recovery, and as soon as his conditions will permit will return home with his mother, who has been with him for a couple of weeks His father left Thursday afternoon

The flu has kept Mr Zorn at home all week, but reports come that he has gotten the better of it. Mr. McGregor has also been absent from school since Monday, caused by bronchitis, but hopes to be in the saddle again by Monday.

Mr W J. Hoverstick was over from Xenia the first of the week, for a little recreation from his typo stool, which he has held down steadily for some time. He works for a weekly paper of his town and has plenty to do at all times

Editor of the Chronicle Conkling is in a blissful state now, for his wife and two children are with him. They have taken a home east of the city beyond Capital University, and not far from the Mayers.

John Dillinger, after several weeks' stay in a hospital because of blood poisoning on one of his hands, is back at his work. The injured member has somewhat lost its deftness.
